

The band Ghosttown Company proves that rousing Irish folk rock does not necessarily have to come from Ireland. It stands for a concentrated load of folk rock. The band has set out from her musical home in Ireland, bringing along the old Irish traditionals, expanding its musical horizons and conquering the world of folk rock.

Ghosttown Company's own compositions have a very high recognition effect, blending seamlessly into the lineup of traditional Irish tracks, and are equally enthusiastically celebrated by the audience.

Ghosttown Company celebrates it so hauntingly and entertainingly that the audience quickly falls under its spell to go part of the way.

Singer Christian unfolds from the first second on its quality as an enthusiastic frontman. It is rocked in the Irish style fast-paced, but also spherical parts are not missing and of course, in addition to all their own songs, the Irish classic "Whiskey in the jar" should not be missed. Played by Ghosttown Company, it sounds as fresh as if the song has just been written.

For their versatility, Ghosttown Company was awarded five prizes at the 35th German Rock and Pop Award 2017.